The purpose of this progress review is to ensure that PhD students and their research supervisors are communicating regularly regarding the student’s progress on thesis research and the student’s overall professional development. Completion of the review during each regular term (fall and spring) is mandatory for all PhD students beginning in the third year of registration. Students conducting thesis research must submit page 4 of this form in order to receive academic credit for research (HST.599, HST.77X, or HST ThG.)

Please note that except for the last page, only the student and their research supervisor will see the completed forms.

Please print out two copies for the review. One copy is to be filled out by the student, the other by the research supervisor. The copies should be completed independently. Feel free to use additional pages if you need more space. After both are completed, the student and the research supervisor should meet to compare and discuss the results. This is the opportunity for both parties to get a better sense of progress on the project, of the student’s development, and of the student/supervisor working relationship, as well as to plan for future progress.

The research supervisor will assigns a grade of satisfactory or unsatisfactory for thesis research, directly on the review form. The student and the research supervisor each sign the review and send page 4 to Traci Anderson in E25-518 by the last day of classes at MIT. The student should retain the original copies of the two review forms while the research supervisor may wish to retain photocopies.
